RUBY HENDRY - VOICE

Age – 21

Where do you study? The Royal Northern College of Music, Manchester

What is your home town? Leeds, West Yorkshire

Favourite composer and why? Poulenc! His vocal writing is utterly sublime.

Proudest moment of your life? Getting my offer to study at the RNCM. I had worked very hard and it's an amazing feeling when it all pays off!

Who is your hero? My mum- breast cancer survivor and the most positive, supportive person I know. Also, my Grandma, she's 92 and still volunteers for her local charity three days a week! I'm very lucky to be surrounded by strong women.

What do you like to do in your spare time? I go running a few times a week as its good for both mental and physical health and I also really enjoy cooking and going out for meals- eating in general haha!

What type of music do you listen to (style, genre, artist)? A bit of an eclectic mix, basically anything you can dance to! I always listen to radio one and I like keeping up with the charts. I also really enjoy classic 80s disco and some 90s artists like the Spice Girls, Britney, Mariah etc

Tell us 5 facts about you.

1. I was once in a DFS advert when I was 9
2. I'm left-handed
3. My go-to karaoke song is Believe by Cher
4. Before deciding to study singing at conservatoire, I planned on applying for a History and English Literature degree
5. I used to row for my school team
